

Ladies measurement guides

People come in all shapes and sizes and measuring them can sometimes be a bit of a challenge! The secret is to make sure that your customer is relaxed and standing straight, looking straight ahead and not down at the measuring tape. Try to make sure they are not sucking in their stomach or holding their breath. There is no point in making a made-to-measure garment which only fits when you are wearing a corset!

Ladies kilted skirt

1. Natural waist over navel
2. Top Hip / Tummy
3. Hip at widest part
4. Length including waistband

Ladies trousers

1. Natural Waist over navel
2. Top Hip / Tummy
3. Hip at widest part
4. Inside Leg
5. Outside leg from below waistband (add 1 _" for waistband)
6. Waist to Waist from below waistband through crotch

